

1888, ch. 137.

214. The county commissioners of said county shall, on or before the second Tuesday in April, in each year, beginning on the second Tuesday of April in the year eighteen hundred and eighty-nine, appoint a collector of State and county taxes for each of said collection districts, who shall execute to the State of Maryland, on or before the second Tuesday of May then next succeeding, a good and sufficient bond, to be approved by the county commissioners, in a penalty double the amount of the State taxes that will be entrusted to him for collection, and conditioned for the true and faithful performance of his duty as collector, and, in like manner, on or before the second Tuesday of June, in the same year, another bond to the State of Maryland, to be also approved by the county commissioners, in a penalty double the amount of the county taxes that will be entrusted to him for collection, conditioned for the true and faithful performance of his duty as collector of county taxes; and each bond shall have at least three good securities, and each of said collector's bonds shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the circuit court for said county, a certified copy of which shall be sufficient evidence against either of said collectors.

Ibid.

215. The duties of each of said collectors shall be to collect and pay over to the proper officers all the State and county taxes levied in his collection district, and to report to the county commissioners all new and missed property in his district liable to taxation.

Ibid.

216. The compensation of each of said collectors shall be fixed by the county commissioners at the time of the appointment, and for all services rendered shall not exceed five per centum of the whole amount of taxes collected by him.

Ibid.

217. The county commissioners, on the first Tuesday in April in the year eighteen hundred and eighty-nine, shall appoint a clerk to said commissioners, who shall continue said clerk for the term of one year; that is, until the first
